

A Study of Psalm 119 ~ Verses 137 - 152

March 10, 2024

(137 – 138) How does the psalmist describe God's word? What attributes does he mention, and how does his description help us to understand the value and strength of God's word?

(139 – 140) How does the author describe his reaction to the fact that he is surrounded by those who lack faith in God's word? How can we relate to his observations, and what does he teach us about our reliance on God's word to respond to similar situations? (Galatians 6: 7– 10)

(141 – 142) In verse 141, how does the psalmist describe himself, and how does he respond? What statements does he make about God's word in verse 142? (Luke 6: 22)

(143 – 144) From verse 143, how can our knowledge of God's word help us to overcome adversity? In verse 144, what does the author request, and what is the desired outcome of his request?

(145 – 146) What requests does the author make as he cries out to the Lord? What does the author pledge to do as he makes those requests, and what do we learn about our relationship with God from the psalmist's example? (Psalms 34: 17– 18)

(147 – 148) According to the author's illustrations, what does he teach us about our focus on God's word? What lesson does he teach us about our dedication to learning God's word and preparing to apply it? (Proverbs 18: 15)

(149 – 150) In verse 149, what request does the author make, and what attributes of God does he reference? What point does the author make in verse 150 about those who lack an understanding of God's word?

(151 – 152) From verse 151, what is the significance of the psalmist's observation that God is near? In verse 152, what statement does he make regarding the longevity of God's word? (Psalms 145: 17– 18; Matthew 24: 35)
