

A Study of Psalm 119

Verses 169 – 176 and Course Review

March 24, 2024

(169 – 170) What do we learn from the author regarding the topic of prayer? What requests does the author make, and what does this teach us about our relationship with God? (Philippians 4: 6 – 7)

(171 – 172) According to verse 171, why does the psalmist offer praise to the Lord? In verse 172, why does the author speak / sing of God's word? What does his point teach us about our willingness and ability to teach God's word to others? (Psalm 117: 1 – 2; Hebrews 13: 15)

(173 – 174) In verse 173, what does the author request from God, and what is the basis for his request? From verse 174, what effect does God's word have on the psalmist?

(175 – 176) What does the author ask of God in verse 175, and what action does the author pledge in response? What confession does the author make in verse 176, and what does he ask from God as a result of this acknowledgement? (Isaiah 53: 6; Luke 19: 10)

Course Review:

- What attributes and characteristics of God's word are identified throughout Psalm 119?
- What do those attributes and characteristics teach us about God?
- How can we strive to imitate those qualities as we serve the Lord?
